THE CONTEST IN INDIANA. Both parties are making unusual exertions to fatal competition from America. They in Indiana, and managers on both sides express themselves as hopeful. The democrats realize that they must carry the state, or their campaign collapses at once. The republicans are exerting all their power to win, in order to finish the campaign, as one of Napoleon's riletin's phrased it, "with a clap of thunder." Loss of the state by the democrats would be to them an Irretrievable disaster. Loss of it by the republicans would leave to them the one more chance of final success by winning New York, From 1860 to 1873 In diana was, with some temporary fluctua-1873 it has been extremely close as between parties, but on the whole democratic. The change in 1873 was produced by economic which are very wall known. The panic which began in that year aruck Indians with peculiar force. In that state there Was a good deal of inflated and artificial provperity. Speculation had raged wildly in the cities, and the high prices for products had tempted the rural population into reckless . City and farm property was mortgages, and production and exchange were subjected to and uncand drain for interest that made large profits and high interest necessary to maintenance. The panic struck Indians like a rent in a big balloon. The destruction of business confidence was a blow at the foundation of credit upon which the false prosperity of the state had been built up. The fall of prices destroyed the means of paving high interest, and the llapse of speculative investments swept out of existence a great mass of imaginary capital. Failures, bankruptoy, foreclosures, pov t fell upon business enterprises in all parts of Indiana with more severity than erhaps in any other state. The stagnation ing from financial stringency began earlier, was more severe and lasted longer in Indiana than anywhere in the west. The natural reault was political discontent, experiments with new parties and the weekening of the party which had control of the government. The greenback party was the natural offof the panic and the resulting hard. The democrats in Indiana, as with the greenbank fote.

They have gained a good deal of it by ses and purchase. The republican parin Indiana has held Itself generally pretty iff upon the financial question; has con-ded nothing to the greenback delusion, and heroically suffered the long of votes paqued by the popular flurry of prejudice and arror. In 1874 the malcontents voted with the democrats upon the state ticket. In 1876 they cast 12,712 voice, and in 1878, 39,415. On the publican party in Indiana lost seriously by the greenback movement, as it has utly lost by the same movement in Maine. But the greenback vote in Indiana is this year going it alone more than formerly. It is the normown quentity which perplexes During the last two or three years there have been business and social changes in the state which may make considerable difference in the voting; for, since prosperity was restored there has been no election to afford a practial test of the influence resulting from change upon the political sentiments of the Examination of the vote of Indiana since 1872 shows that while the democrats have carried the state, they have never once had an absolute majority. In the presi iential contest of 1072 the republicans had 188 147, and the democrats 163,632. But in versed, the democrate having 182,134 and the republicans 164,902. The panic transferred out 20,000 votes bodily from the republican side to the democratic. In 1876 the vote was, democratic 213,219; republican, 208,080; greenback, 12,712. Still about 20,000 preponderance over the repar-licans, this time divided between the two other parties. In 1878 the depression of and the labor riots of the year before had strengthened the third party movement. It tional issues in the election. The third party vote swelled to 39,415, and still drew most republicans will win the state. Hut under rany view it is a close, hard and doubtful content, and the managers of both parties fully realize the fact. Any opinion as to the remendous suits mare conjecture; and the tremendous ensite the managers of both parties are making show how closes and don all they regard the content.

prior obtained for English and American wheat respectively during the past year:

An English writer reviewing these figures says they are full of hope to the English far-mer, "as they show first of all, that the wretched prices which English wheat made during the harvest year 1879-80 are in no way indicative of the real value of good wheat in the English market, while they so far support Messrs. Read and Pell's report that American wheat cannot be put on the English market at a profit under 48 shillings per quarter, by showing that during the past year it has made considerable more than that sum." But another writer dashes these expectations by pointing out that "the American wheat is of the future are now only beginning townd cultivators," and that the movemen of American wheat to England has only just regun. "In the course of the next few years millions of acres now in a state of nature will be producing wheat in such volume as must altogether disturb the averages upon which

This report by Read and Pell has been noticed heretofore in our commercial dispatches. Our grain growers and shippers may be inby agricultural commissioners appointed by the British parliament to investigate the conditions of agricultural production in America Mesers, Read and Pell are practical agriculland-holders. Though they came to investi-gate the condition of American agriculture, their report shows that they did not forget that they were representatives of the British avor of land-tenurs and production at home. In other words, they came as advocates of the British landlord against the indictment brought by British public sentiment, charging that the conditions he has moresed upo spicultural production in England expose it CRAND OPENING. came to break the force of the unple truth, forced upon the British public by the ev dence of their own market reports, that American grain, be if and dairy products car be produced, exported to Great British and sold there, cheaper than they can be grown and sold on British soil. The necessity of LARGE AND WELL SELECTED STOCK of New York and Purisan doing this has imposed upon them the doubtiess unpleasant duty of not only suppressing unfavorable fa.43 and giv ng ur nence to those they consider favorable, Which will be Exhibited WED YESDAY & THURSDAY, Oct. 6 and 7. but of distorting those facts which they can wheat can not be laid down in London for less than £2.78 ! ld per quarter, or nearly $1 50 per bushel. The deduction from this is that so long as the British farmer can profitably raise wheat for less han about six American compelition. For the last six months, or ever since Messra, Read and Pell in London has been much less than $1 50. At the time the report was presented to parliament wheat was selling in Mark Lane at prices ranging below $1.30. According to the logic of the report there should have been no importation of wheat at this time. Americans do not ship wheat across the ocean to sell it at twenty dents per bushel loss. If the report was founded on true data, the exportation of wheat from America to Great Britain should have stopped when the breaking of ning of the largest grain export movement ever known. While Read and Pell were writing their report, proving that wheat could not be brought from America for less than $1 50, thousands of bushels of American sold for $1 30. Latest cable quotations report prices, now. So American wheat can be sold in England at less than $1.50, even under the profit to our farmers in not what is d stred; but still the fogle of facts disprove the Read and B a raport to the British parliament.

BUCTURAN AND HANCOCK.

General Bianock is a Panneyvania demonstration of the Read and D a crat. So was Japan Buchanan. The former is identified as much as the latter was with the spirit of apposition to the stand made by party, which has been sup me republican party, which has been sup-ported by the country now for twenty years, against the general philosophy of democracy as a party organization. If General Hancock should be circuit the theories of Buchanan would are in be stroduced as the true interpretation of the nature and powers of our gov-ernment. Though Hancock was a soldier in the way he has evershown an entire want of the war, on the national side. His whole career shows a total want of avmosthy with lieved in fighting against secondon; but at the same time he was of those who believed that the south was ill-treated, and had no small provocation and excuse for its course Further, he was of those who did not want slavery abolished, who disliked and opposed the reconstruction laws, and who ments. The first act of Gen. Hancock which drew to him the attention of the implecable and reactionary ex confederates was his defiance of the reconstruction laws. Active in defeating the objects of congressional legis-lation, he thus advertised nimself as the prop r candidate of the ex-confederate defrom the time he issued his order forty," an order designed to mullify the re-construction laws and bolster up the false policy of Andrew Johnson. The representative democrat of Pennsylvania used to be deriety. Hancock is expected to take up this esentative connecter where Buchanen which he has studied and the lessons he has recited from it, the conclusion may be prop erly drawn that he will support the character, should be become freedent.

The last section of the buildings bill to amend the charter of the city of Portland pro vides that the art shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage—ince "the YOUR SWEETER TO COUNTY AND ALLE GIVEN MOVE VICES TOUR HID REVENUE LARK PROSERVE OF THE STREET, AND THE STREET, before, and the theirbeirate 184776, a bily Portland requires the speedy passage of this about 19,000 less than in 1876. Evaratine 1875 act." Now this last declaration is impudentite the third party vote which has taken from republican strength and given the democrate city were never better guarded and main-their apparent majority. Every year when bained than now; and the secretion that any-these has a shirtle party in the field, the trength of the latter has been drawn from being and peace of the city by putting in the angulations, and the combined vote of control of its affairs the gang of bammers the two has exceeded the democratic wote by who are at the capital urgangthis change from 5000 to 20,000. Should the third party in the charter solely to make the city a voice be drawn unitely from the republicans that year, as herefooter, the democrats will self to the respectable public in about the said have a plurality; but should saide way as would a produssion by high-the changed conditions bring the wayward waymen that the interests of peace order, g, votes back to their party, the honesty and justice require them to take as will win the state.
